20 February 2016

0900 Base Chaplin Fred Borgmann blessed the breakfast food which was prepared by Vice Cmdr. Doug McKay and his wife Allison. The breakfast meeting was being held at American Legion #149 on Kitsap Way.

Breakfast was served.

1000 Base Commander Steve Corcoran called the meeting to order

Opening observances were conducted.

World War II Submarine Veteran Paul Christofferson , Jim Foot past National Senior Vice Cmdr., and Hal Barker WWII Veteran were in attendance along with fifty plus members and guests attended the February Monthly Social Breakfast meeting.

Mary Ryan, Curator from the Naval Undersea Museum at Keyport, talked briefly about their upcoming project and asked for volunteers from anyone who made a deterrent patrol to be recorded telling their story for this project.

Steve announced upcoming base related activities including the TRIAD Symposium, the next base meeting March 19 at FRA and the April Dolphin Dash.

Steve then introduced professional magician Kevin Wolfe who put on a very entertaining show with the help of a few base members. They were most amazing elusions, and left most intrigued with his ability and left uncertainty in most minds.

Katie Kaiser won $110.00 in the 50/50 raffle of which she donated $50.00 to the scholarship fund.

1030 Meeting was adjourned.
